

¡Felicidades! Becker Federal Lobbyists Named HNBA White House Liaisons

January 28, 2021

By: Alfonso Lopez, Omar Franco, Bert Gómez

Becker is proud to celebrate the appointment of Alfonso Lopez, Omar Franco, and Bert Gómez as Hispanic National Bar Association White House Liaisons. The HNBA plays an integral role in the monitoring and advancement of substantive legal issues that impact Hispanic legal professionals and the U.S. Latino population at the local, state, and federal levels.

According to the notification letter from Elia Diaz-Yaeger, National President of the HNBA, the three members of Becker's Federal Lobbying Team were selected because of their outstanding achievements and dedication to the HNBA, as well as proven industry expertise and genuine interest in fulfilling the mission of the HNBA.

To learn more about the Hispanic National Bar Association's purpose, programs, and members, please click here.