Jay Roberts represents community associations and developers with respect to all aspects of creating and operating planned community developments throughout Northwest Florida. Jay was born and raised on Florida's Emerald Coast, and has dedicated his career to serving the legal needs of this area. Specifically, Jay helps association leaders protect their community's property and money by keeping current on the ever-changing law, identifying inevitable pitfalls, and managing their reputational, financial, and operational risk. Jay is one of only 190 attorneys statewide who is a Board Certified Specialist in Condominium and Planned Development Law.

EXPERIENCE
