

Shuya Tan

Attorney at Law

New York, New York

T: 212.440.5980

STAN@beckerlawyers.com

Practices

- Corporate
 - China Practice
 - Corporate Governance
 - Corporate Transactions
 - Mergers and Acquisitions
 - Private Equity

Education

- Northwestern University, J.D., LL.M.
- Peking University Law School, Master of Law
- Beihang University, LL.B.

Bar Admissions

- New York
- China Legal Professional Qualification

Shuya Tan is a corporate transactional attorney who concentrates her practice in the areas of fund formation, private equity and venture capital, finance, mergers and acquisitions, Security Token Offerings, corporate governance, and other general corporate matters. Her experience includes the drafting and negotiation of stock purchase agreements, limited partnership agreements, operating agreements, and private placement memorandum.

Ms. Tan formerly served as General Counsel to the U.S. subsidiary of Hongkun Group, a global real estate investment, development and managing holding company, as well as corporate counsel for China Merchants Bank, a facilitator of cross-border finance between China and the United States.