TAKE IT TO THE BOARD

WITH DONNA DIMAGGIO BERGER

we speak condo. (and HOA!)

Becker proudly announces Take It To The Board with Donna DiMaggio Berger, a podcast that explores the reality of life in a condominium, cooperative or homeowners' association, what's really involved in serving on its board, and how to maintain that ever-so-delicate balance of being legally compliant and community spirited.

"Becker's platinum service to local community associations is the cornerstone on which we have built very successful real estate, construction, corporate, and government practices," said Gary C. Rosen, Managing Shareholder. "It's only natural that we would embrace yet another way to continue our conversation with this audience, and the logical choice to host was our own Donna DiMaggio Berger."

Berger is a Board-Certified Specialist in condominium and planned development law, a shareholder at Becker, and the executive director of the Community Association Leadership Lobby. She has served the community association industry for over 25 years and views finding new ways to advance and improve this lifestyle as her life work.

"I love that the podcast format allows us to connect with our audience - whether they are clients of the firm or not - in a way that fits into their lives and educates while entertaining," said Berger. "Take It To the Board listeners are guaranteed to learn more about every facet of the shared ownership lifestyle and are invited to tune in for candid discussions with a variety of association leaders, experts, and vendors about issues they are facing, have faced, or something that might be in their future."
